The 2010 Moscato d'Asti is made in a fairly bold style. It is fascinating to compare the Moscatos of Castiglione Tinella, a great village for the wine, but one of many places where Moscato is made. Vietti's version impresses for its textural depth and richness. A creamy finish rounds things out nicely. Anticipated maturity: 2011-2012.

Unfortunately I was only able to taste a small selection of wines from Vietti for this article. I will report on the estate's new Barbera and Barbaresco releases in my next Piedmont article, scheduled for February 2012.

Importer: Dalla Terra, Napa, CA; tel. (707) 259-5405

About Maturity and Drink Dates: Most reviews in The Wine Advocate include a period during which the wine should ideally be consumed. We express it as a range of years (Drink Dates) and we use that range to calculate a 'Maturity' for the wine as of the current date. Maturity values are: Young - the early drink date is in the future; Early - first third of the drink date range; Mature - middle third of the range; Late - last third of the range; Old - the late drink date is in the past.
