Wine Wednesday: "A sipping wine par excellence"

Bonus Wine Wednesday!

Vietti Winery's most recent Barbaresco from the vineyard of Masseria is a textbook example of the Nebbiolo grape at its most expressive. Is $100 too much to pay for a bottle of wine? A wine this good can wear its price tag with no apology necessary.

2006 Barbaresco Masseria, Vietti $105 srp

SO fragrant and showy--this wine simply explodes on the sinuses with brimming notes of roses, tea leaves, textbook Nebbiolo fruit that is dark and saturated. Tender, graceful flavors with hints of cigar tobacco, fresh earth and mountain cherries. Extremely complex aftertaste and already showing amazingly well. Will continue to develop.
