Dalla Terra Winery Direct founder Brian Larky and Luca

Currado, fifth-generation enologist of Vietti, have released the 2004 Villero Riserva Barolo DOCG (SRP $300). Only produced in outstanding vintages (the previous release was the 2001), this wine hails from Piedmont's celebrated Castiglione Falletto. Just over 3,700 750ml bottles, 100 magnums and a handful of larger-format bottles were produced. Continuing a tradition of labels designed by local artists, Russian-born Leonid Sokov was tapped for the 2004 Villero. dallaterra.com
