

NathanDoesVino.com

12-14-2011

Producer Feature: Vietti

This week's producer featured focused on Vietti's more value-driven lineup with the 2009 Roero Arneis which recieved 88 points from Antonio Galloni and the 2008 Langhe Nebbiolo Perbacco which in previous vintages has recieved consistent 90+ scores from Antonio Galloni (which for a wine that only costs $26, is potentially any amazing value). I found both of these to be very fascinating and would urge to stretch your comfort zone and try something new by giving these a try; cheers!