Rosé and White Wines that are Dressed to Impress

MAY 10, 2017 by ANNELISE MCAULIFFE

Rosé and white wines are often more affordable, but still as impressive as red wines and more refreshing for the season. In time for Mother's Day, check out a Rosé and white wine that are dressed to impress Mom and all your loved ones through summer.

Isabel Rosé: $20

The physical bottle of wine is a true stunner. With a simply elegant pattern and glass cork, this rosé is not only eco-friendly (leaving the cork tree out of the equation), but very food friendly. With a light pink hue, this wine feels like it was made for brunch with aromas of berries and acidity on the tongue. Bring the brightness of this bottle to a cheesy breakfast quiche. Or, serve later in the day with fish tacos.

M de Minuty 2016: $19

Let's start with appearances. We love the bottle shape of this Minuty Rosé. It's tall, slightly curvy and perfect to highlight the subtle salmon-pink hue of the wine. Despite its muted color, it's quite bright on the palate with plenty of acidity on the finish. Pair with jammy apricot toasts at brunch or grilled chicken on a warm evening.

2016 Vietti Roero Arneis: $23

Celebrate Mom or a beautiful spring meal with this special Italian wine. Vietti winery is celebrating their 50th anniversary of the Roero Arneis and have debuted a stunning white wine in celebration. With historical roots dating back to the 1400s (and a fun checkered foil) this wine is as revered and special as Mom. Unoaked and without malolactic fermentation, it's acidic, refreshing with notes of floral and bright citrus. It's pure spring sunshine in a bottle. Pair this wine with equally refreshing seafood or a citrus grilled chicken. Or, let the freshness of the wine balance out a heavy eggs Benedict brunch or creamy cheese platter.
