Celebrate the taste of Italy

Chef Lorenzo Severini, the head chef of this suburban restaurant, has prepared a menu inspired by Tuscany, from where he hails. Begin your meal with Cacciucco alla viareggina, a typical fish soup made with pomfret, scallops, shrimps, clams and squids along with a refreshing summer Tuscan salad called Panazanella. Dig into Fagotto Fiorentino (in pic) made with Pecorino cheese, spinach and mushroom in a filo shell and sip Vietti Barbera d'Alba wine and Tonno del Chianti which is a pork loin confit paired with a Querciabella Chianti Classico wine. Pasta lovers, try the Tordelli lucchesi rewind, a classic lamb ravioli with lamb ragout. End it on a sweet note with Zuppa inglese, a classic Florentine dessert made of layers of sponge cake, vanilla chantilly and chocolate cream. Don't miss this Tuscan Food and Wine Trail, we say.
